Numb. 9177.

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Saturday June 20, to Tuesday June 23, 1752.

Warsaw, June 12.

MAJOR General Count Rex, whom the King has appointed to review the Saxon Troops in this Kingdom, set out from hence on Monday last for Cracow and Sambor, in order to review the Regiments of the Princes Charles and Albert, that are in Garrison in those two Places. The last Advices we received from the Frontiers of the Ukraine say, that notwithstanding all the Precautions that have been taken to prevent the Incursions of the Heyducks, a large Body of them have lately plundered a Village in the District of Winnitzka, after having massacred a great Number of the Inhabitants.

Inspruck, June 13. General Count Maguire, Governor of Clagenfurt in Carinthia, who arrived here a few Days ago, sets out To-morrow to visit Kuffstein, and other fortified Places in this Principality; after which, in Conformity to his Orders, he is to review all the Troops in the Garrisons of Bregentz, Fribourg, Brisgaw and Philipsbourg.

Vienna, June 14. The Return of the Court to Schonbrun from Laxembourg, is fixed for the 23d Instant. 'Tis said a Camp will be formed this Summer in the Neighhourhood of Pest in Hungary, but as yet the Regiments for that Service are not named, neither is the General who is to command it. The Archduke Joseph, who has been for some Days indisposed, is now perfectly recovered, and is gone to join their Imperial Majesties at Laxembourg.

Modena, June 15. They write from Genoa, that the Marquess Grimaldi is elected Doge of that Republick, in the Room of M. Lomellino, who resigned that Employment.

Stockholm, June 16. Yesterday the Ceremony of closing the Diet of the States of this Kingdom, was performed with the usual Formalities. The King has, upon the Separation of the Diet, made several Military Promotions, and filled up some vacant Employments. 'Tis said his Majesty will set out in a few Days for Finland, in order to review the Troops, and examine into the Strength of the Fortifications in that Province.

Copenhagen, June 17. The Count de Lieven, who arrived here a few Days ago from Stockholm, had Yesterday a private Audience of the King, and delivered to his Majesty the Ensigns of the Order of the Elephant, with which the late King of Sweden had been invested.

Dresden, June 20. During the King's Stay at Fraustadt, his Majesty disposed of several considerable Benefices and Employments which were become vacant in Poland, amongst which, M. Dembowsky, Bishop of Plock, was translated to the Bishoprick of Cujavia, and the Bishop of Chelm to that of Plock; and M. Wezyck, Grand Prevost of the Chapter of the Cathedral Church of Gnesne, was appointed Bishop of Chelm. The Abbey of Wochock was given to M. Zalusky, Referendary of the Crown; and that of Wogrowieck to M. Bayer, President of the Tribunal of Lublin. Count Poniatowsky was appointed Castellan of Cracow; and M. Rudziensky, Castellan of Czersck, was appointed Palatin of Mazure, in the room of Count Poniatowsky. Prince Lubomirsky was appointed Palatin of Lublin; and the Post of Great General of the Crown Army was conferred on Count Branicky, Palatin of Cracow.

Berlin, June 20. The King, who went the Beginning of last Week to Stettin, to review the Troops assembled in the Neighbourhood of that Place, returned to Potzdam on Sunday, from whence his Majesty proposes setting out again on Saturday for Charlottenbourg, with all the Royal Family, in order to receive the Princess of Hesse-Cassel, whose Marriage with Prince Henry his Majesty's Brother, remains fixed for Sunday next.

Bonne, June 21. The Elector our Sovereign, who left Augustebourg on Monday last, lay that Night at Poppelsdorff; and Yesterday Morning his Serene Highness, accompanied by the principal Lords of his Court, went to a Plain in the Neighbourhood of that Place, and reviewed the Regiment of Lieutenant General Baron Wildenstein; with whose Appearance and Behaviour his Electoral Highness was so well pleased, that he advanced some of the Subaltern

Subaltern Officers, and cauſed a handſome Gratuity to be given to the private Men.

Duſſeldorp, June 22. The latter End of laſt Week, a great Number of German Families, bound for Nova Scotia, where they are going to reſide, ſailed down the Rhine in Barks, in order to go on Board the Ships provided for them.

Verſailles, June 23. On Friday laſt the King went to take the Diverſion of Hunting in the Foreſt of Rambouillet. The next Day his Majeſty dined at Trianon, and went in the Afternoon to Choiſy, from whence his Majeſty returned hither on Monday Evening; and the next Day he admitted Count Kaunitz-Rittberg, Ambaſſador from their Imperial Majeſties, to a private Audience. The Duke of Deux Ponts, who has been here ſome Time under the Name of Count Sponheim, took Leave of their Majeſties and the Royal Family on Friday Morning laſt, and the next Day ſet out on his Return Home. The Queen, who has been for ſome Days paſt indiſpoſed with a Cold, is now perfectly recovered, and went Yeſterday to dine with the Dutcheſs of Penthievre at Putteaux. They write from Madrid, that the King has conferred on the Counts Bagnos and Aguilar the Title of Grandees of Spain; and that his Majeſty has named Don Manuel Murillo d'Argaiz to the vacant Biſhoprick of Segovia, and appointed Don Juan de Parados to be Governor of Oran.

Hague, June 27. The States of Holland and Weſtfrizeland are to aſſemble on the 12th of next Month. The Baron de Waſſenaer, Ambaſſador from this Court to that of Spain, propoſes to ſet out from hence in a few Days for Madrid.
